Vita

Quincy Jointz started at age of 14 with first dj-residence at the youth club of his hometown, spinning all kind of music. With 18 years he began working at Point, Emmendingen.

After different other clubs in and around Freiburg, Germany (Arche, Subway...) he changed his music-style into funky and jazzy freestyle.

In August 2002 he kicks off his "melting pot radio-show" on monofunk.net . One year after he begins his second show "international freeridin´ " on radio42.com. This show is also broadcasted on www.netmusique.com since November 2005.

In Fall 2004 he started to do the "Lime Sorbet Show" for the Florida-based label Citrona Records with own mixes and guestmixes by ace djs like Fort Knox Five, Ed Royal & Enne, Dr. Rubberfunk, Ursula 1000, Skeewiff, ...

Quincy Jointz starts the very successfull music-project by the name Geriba together with his partner Jörn in 2003. Releases on ace labels Ikike Funk Weapons (USA), Citrona Rec (USA) and Invision rec (Austria) followed.

In 2006 he also started to produce EPs and remixes under his "Quincy Jointz"-alias.
